Toledo, O., May 11, 1892.

The storm central over Iowa has moved eastward and it covers the lower lakes with its center over lower Michigan. This storm has caused rains during the past 24 hours over the entire country except the New England states, where it will rain today.

The conditions over the northwest are about the same as Tuesday—very light rains and generally cloudy weather, with nearly stationary temperature. There are no signs of fair weather for that section at present. The weather is cloudy and raining everywhere except in the extreme southern portion of the country.

The temperature has fallen from 5 to 18 degrees in the Ohio valley; in all other districts it has remained stationary.

Winds are generally high on the lakes, and from west to north. Signals are still displayed. The Mississippi and Missouri rivers are still rising, and heavy rains of the past 48 hours will increase the danger from overflow in Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi.

It clears the head when you clear the stomach and bowels. You can't think, with your system all choked up and stagnant. That's just the time to contract disease, too.

Put yourself in good condition with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. You won't have to have a struggle with them, as you do with the ordinary pill. You won't notice them. Mildly and gently, but thoroughly and effectively, they cleanse and regulate the whole system. Sick or Bilious Headaches, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels are prevented, relieved, and cured.

They're the best liver pill known, purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, the smallest, easiest and best to take. They're the cheapest pills you can buy, too, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. "Value received or no pay"—it's a plan peculiar to Dr. Pierce's medicines.

FORTY ARE DEAD

Horrible Mine Disaster in Washington.

Fatal Gas Explosion Just at the Time

When Two Gangs of Men Were Shifting.

Of all the Men But Two Escaped.

The Mine Was the Property of Railroad Companies and Was the Largest in the State.

Seattle, Wash., May 11.—A special to the Post Intelligencer from Roslyn, Wash., says a terrible gas explosion occurred in the slope of mine No. 2 of the Northern Pacific Coal company yesterday at this point in which the loss of life has exceeded in number that of any other disaster that has ever been chronicled in the northwest.

The exact nature of the explosion or circumstances that led to it will probably never be known, since it is believed that every miner who was at work in the slope at the time has perished.

It is not definitely known how many men were in the vicinity of the disaster, but it is believed that between forty-five and fifty were on the three levels that were affected by the explosion.

Large relief forces are at work and at this time two bodies have been recovered.

These men were working nearest the opening and at some distance from the point where it is supposed the explosion occurred.

Most of the men were 1,500 and 2,000 feet farther in the slope and in the immediate vicinity of the accident. There is no doubt either in the minds of miners or the company officials that every man was instantly killed.

The Roslyn mine is one of the largest in the state, supplying the western divisions of the Northern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads with coal, and has a capacity of 20,000 tons a day. The explosion occurred just as the two gangs were shifting at 1:30 o'clock. The cause of it was not known. Two boys who were in the tunnel escaped, but they are the only ones from either gang so far recovered. Reports so far received indicate that the explosion has closed up the shaft; that the mine is on fire, and that it is impossible to recover the bodies. The company will forward 40 coffins from here by midnight train.

A driver had just come out of the slope when a tremendous explosion occurred. The shock upset his cars, knocked mules and drivers down, and bruised a man standing 100 feet away. The report was heard all over town, a mile away. The mouth of the slope was soon surrounded by an anxious crowd, which grew in size every minute.

The lower floor of the city hall has been converted into a morgue. The rescued bodies are being viewed by crowds. A sad feature of the disaster is that a large proportion of the victims have large families, and as they have not had over two days' work per week during the past year many of them are in straitened circumstances. The scenes about the slope were sad in the extreme. Women and children standing about in a dazed condition, and pitiful lamentations of the negroes add to the horror.

Of the 45 men at work in the mines only two escaped with their lives.

No One Escaped.

Manager Kangley of the Roslyn mines says the explosion was caused by gas, which was probably lighted by a match or the careless use of a lamp. The true cause of the accident will never be definitely known, as no one escaped to tell the story.

Thirty-three of 43 of the miners imprisoned are married, and their widows and families clamor wildly about the entrance to the slope. Many of the families are entirely destitute.

The slope is 2,600 feet long and has several levels or cross-cuts which intersect the slope horizontally at right angles.

In opening some of these levels it is impossible to get air circulating through them until the work of opening the level is completed. The slope dipped at an angle of 20 degrees and was 6 feet high and 14 wide. The levels are 8 feet square.

Seven hundred miners are at work rescuing the bodies and have reached the fourth level, having found seven bodies. The names of the men whose bodies were found are: Thomas Reese, Thomas Holdes, Ben Ostliss, A. Pollard (colored), Wm. Hague, Jack Boone and Harry Campbell.

The men known to be imprisoned and not yet rescued are:

John Reese, Joseph Cusworth, jr., John Lafferty, George Forsythe, M. Hale, Joseph Morgan, Herman Danste, John Foster, Philip Davis; son of Thos. Reese; Wm. Robertson, Robert Graham, George Moses, Jack Hodgson, George Brooks; son of Joseph Cusworth; Dan McClellan, Richard Forsythe, son of George Forsythe; Tobe Cooper (colored), Lige Jackson (colored), P. Lorrings (colored), Andrew Cort Anderson, Charles Palmer, Mitchell Ronas, W. Steele, John Donk, Jerry Weatherly, Joseph Boitt, Thomas Brennan, Jos. Bennett, Wm. Penhill, Sid Wright, James Morgan, Joseph Hoston (colored), George Williams (colored) and Scott Giles (colored).

THEY KILLED THE PATIENT

Sheriff Shoemaker Placed Under Arrest.

He is Charged with Striking a Blow Which Killed an Insane Man.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 11.—John McClaren died in the Dixmont insane asylum on Monday under such suspicious circumstances that a coroner's inquest was held to-day. The developments are startling.

Dr. G. G. Graham, assistant superintendent of the asylum, testified that when the patient was brought to him the sheriff who accompanied him said that he had to knock the patient down with a club. Dr. Graham thinks the injuries caused death, as the skull was fractured. Dr. Hutchinson, superintendent of the asylum, testified that the man had died from violence.

It was shown that deceased had jumped through a window shortly before being brought to the asylum, and had cut his scalp, but it was said that this did not cause his death.

On the coroner's notification, Sheriff Shoemaker was ordered to be arrested.

MRS. SPOFFORD DEAD.

Washington, May 11.—Mrs. A. R. Spofford, wife of the librarian of congress, died here early this morning of pneumonia, after a week's illness. She was a native of Massachusetts, but has lived in this city since 1862. Mrs. Spofford leaves a husband and three children, one of whom is now at the famous water-cure, Kreuznach, Germany

HOTEL MEN.

Walter Barnes, an Old Toledo Boy, Honored.

Detroit, Mich., May 11.—The annual meeting of the United States Hotelmen association has closed. This association is composed solely of hotel proprietors. Its preliminary meeting was held in Saratoga two years ago and a constitution and by-laws drawn up, which was adopted last year at Cleveland.

The association has grown rapidly and its members now represent 61,000 hotels in every state and territory and this number is constantly being added to. It is not a beneficial, but a protective organization; its object being to look after legislation affecting hotel interests.

The secretary's report showed a membership of 1,106 and receipts during the past year of $36,189, and a balance on hand of $7,332.

The place of holding the next meeting was left to the executive committee. Denver and Cincinnati extend invitations.

The following officers were elected: President, L. A. McCreary, Russel house, Detroit; secretary and treasurer, Walter Barnes, Victoria hotel, Chicago. The old board of directors was continued for the ensuing year.

Washington T. Jacques, of the Murray Hill hotel, New York, was chosen as first vice president, and a vice president was named from each state represented. The finance committee comprises Wm. McCoy, M. O'Brien and H. W. Fall, all of Chicago.

HEAVY TIDAL WAVE.

New York, May 11.—A special cable dispatch to the Herald from Montevideo, Uragnay, says that an extraordinary tidal wave occurred yesterday. Several vessels were left dry when the wave receded.

A number of coins and medals of the Spanish epoch were found on the shore.

GREAT DAY IN KENTUCKY

The Louisville Derby Attracting Attention.

Five Horses Out of Sixty-Eight Started.

Horsemen from all Over the Country Saw the Great Event and Cheered.

Louisville, Ky., May 11.—To-day the eighteenth Kentucky derby will be run, and the prospects are that the weather will be fair. The rain yesterday and the day before promised to upset all calculations of a dry track, but it quit in time yesterday for the track to dry.

For the 68 nominations those that have been found wanting have been winnowed out. Several colts have died, some have proved false from the first to their high breeding, but the flower of the entire list are left, and to-day the following will fight it out:

Phil Dwyer, b. c., by Longfellow-Imp. Encore, E. Corrigan.

Huron, b. c., by Iroquois-Brunette, E. Corrigan.

Irish Chief, b. c., by Longfellow-Baybee, B. J. Treacy.

Azra, b. c., by Reform-Albia, Bashford Manor stable.

Bashford, ch. c., by Imp-Woodlands-Sister of Mercy, Bashford Manor stables.

Next in importance to the starters themselves are the jockeys who will pilot them to victory or defeat. They are almost sure to be as follows:

Overton on Phil Dwyer; Penny on Huron; Clayton on Azra; Murphy or Britton on Irish Chief, and R. Williams on Bashford if he starts.

This list corresponds to the ideas of the best posted men although it is in contradiction to the previous belief fostered by stable talk.

The impression had been given that Mr. Corrigan would try to win with Huron and would have his premier jockey upon the Iroquois colt.

This idea has changed with the last two days and some turfmen believe the change will give a line to-day on the intentions of the Chicago owner.

Clayton has been known all along to be the pick of the long pair, and that pick has been known to be Azra. The talk still goes on that H. Anderson would ride Irish chief, but it is not likely that so shrewd a turfman as Mr. Treacy would trust his colt in the hands of a boy, however clever, who would have to carry such lumps of lead in his saddle.

Bashford will probably not start as he is marked doubtful, and his owner believes that Azra can turn the trick for his stable. The track is good and safe. It will not be muddy unless there is rain this afternoon.

CALM BEFORE THE STORM

Trouble Certainly Brewing in Venezuela.

Crespo's Forces Getting Ready to Strike.

The Next Big Battle Will be Fought at Victoria and it Will Occur in a Few Days.

New York, May 11.—A special to the Herald from Barcelona, Venezuela, says the situation in Venezuela it not materially changed. Desertions from the government army continue. The deserters are principally peasants and laborers recently conscripted.

Several skirmishes have taken place between the advanced posts of the revolutionists and the government forces, but there have been no important fights reported since the battle of Palito, in which the troops sent out from Puerto Cabello by Palacio's general were defeated.

At Laguayra and Puerto Cabello all is quiet at present and there is no longer any difficulty in discharging or loading cargoes. The normal condition of affairs is largely restored. No definite news has been received from the seat of the revolution. It is generally supposed, however, that the cause of the rebellion is progressing favorably.

In all likelihood the next big battle will be fought at La Victoria. The revolutionists surround that town on all sides, preventing communication between it and Caracas. Palacio's troops cannot render any aid to the besieged town.

Crespo's men occupy all the commanding heights around La Victoria. The lull now existing cannot last long. Crespo continues to receive arms and ammunition. When a full supply shall have been obtained he will assume the offensive. Until now he has been content to maintain his position around Valencia and La Victoria.

BEN A BEATEN MAN

The Bosses Have Sealed His Fate,

And Declared in Favor of Sherman.

The Political Machine Is Now at Work

And Great Results are Looked For.

Grandpa's Hat is to be Placed on the Shelf Until Russell Gets Old Enough to Wear It Through a Future Campaign.

New York, May 11.—A special to the Sun from Washington says republican newspapers engaged in belittling the political conference of last Saturday evening make misstatements of fact in order to counteract the effect of what took place.

While these organs endeavor to establish that the conference was nothing more than an informal talk between Messrs. Platt and Quay, the fact is that it was a most formal, prearranged one, called for the purpose of mapping out a program by which to defeat President Harrison's ambition.

The managers who compared notes at this meeting received reports from friends in various parts of the United States suggesting the continuance of the work against Harrison.

One of them said yesterday that Harrison is already a beaten man.

The Saturday night conference took place in Senator Cameron's house, and not, as reported, in Senator Quay's.

The statement was made in the conference that Mr. Blaine would pen a supplementary letter to the one he wrote Mr. Clarkson, which would make it useless for his friends to attempt to make him a candidate, and that Sherman seemed to be the strongest and most available man.

It was decided to send an Ohio agent to Ohio to see whether Foraker and his friends would support Sherman loyally.

A suggestion was made in the interest of Mr. Reed's candidacy.

Mr. Platt said he did not think he would develop sufficient strength to warrant his candidacy.

The Pennsylvania senators agreed in this view.

Gen. Alger's claims were also considered, but he was talked of chiefly as an ally, it being conceded that he was not in the race, although it was admitted that his name would be presented.

The net result of the meeting was that in view of the encouraging reports as to the number of elected anti-Harrison delegates, the work toward his defeat should be pushed forward.

The forces will rally around the name of Sherman, who at present is the strongest candidate.

The contingency of Blaine's final decision will be kept constantly in mind, and if he does not make it possible himself he will be nominated. If he does, the anti-Harrison managers will throw all the votes they can control in aid of the movement to put the name of John Sherman, of Ohio, at the head of the ticket.

GOSSIP OF THE LAKES

Chicago Making Great Preparations

For a Grand Time During Next Year.

A Review of the Country's Great Yachts to Take Place—General and Local Mention.

Chicago, May 11.—(Special Marine Service)—Vessel sales were recorded at the custom house yesterday as follows: Jas. J. Rardon to C. W. Elphicke, schooner J. D. Sawyer, 605 tons; consideration, $7,500. The Sawyer is ashore at Avon Point. George Finney to Henry Cullett, of Green Bay, schooner Eagle Wing, $1,500.

The big steamer H. R. James, of the Ogdensburg line, has been reported at the custom house for violation of laws. She has no name on her bows.

Inquiries are made as to why revenue cutters and other government vessels on the lakes do not comply with the laws in regard to hull and boiler inspection, names on bows, stern lights, etc. The revenue cutter Andrew Johnson ran around this lake for years with unsafe boilers, despite the protests of her officers, until the newspapers finally gave publicity to her unsafe condition.

Masters sworn in yesterday at the custom house: Morgan Hart, tug M. Shields; John Mulvany, schooner S. M. Stevenson (in place of the late Capt. George Granger); Frank Jacobs, tug J. V. Taylor.

The many friends of Capt. Dunn will regret to learn that he has lost the command of the fine steel steamer Germany. She was on the rocks recently near Poverty island and her repairs cost $3,000. Capt. Frank Stanton, formerly in the Northerner, has been given charge. The big steamer Republic took the German's place in the dry dock.

The tug A. A. Carpenter lost part of her house in the harbor yesterday afternoon, it being scraped off by the jibboom of the schooner Iver Lawson.

The bend in the river at State street was the cause of another accident there yesterday. The schooner C. C. Trowbridge, towing up light, lost her jibboom and head gear, while the bridge railing was torn away for some distance and the city electric light, a costly iron affair, was knocked down. The bridge could not be closed for some time until the great post could be gotten out of the way. Complaint is made that these electric light posts on the bridge approaches are in the legitimate path of vessels' jibbooms, being located on the extreme edge.

The vessel owners' shipping office in Chicago was opened yesterday at the old stand in the lumber exchange building. Capt. Egan and Capt. Blemel are in charge. Crews will be shipped from today on.

The officers of the Seamen's union say that it is right and proper for the vessel owners to have a shipping office, but add the union sailors will ship for less than $2 a day at present. They claim that the Knights of Labor sailors have all joined the union and that it is stronger to-day than ever before. Wages at the shipping office are $1.75 a day.

Vessel and steamboat men continue to complain that the harbor contractors are dangerously careless about their flat scows, and leave them without lights at night at the worst places in the river. The steamer Tioga and other craft had narrow escapes from some of Green's flatboats, which were left between Lake and Randolph streets Monday night.

Col. John Mason Loomis, Collector of Customs Clark, and various gentlemen conected with the World's Fair, are preparing to issue invitations to the New York steam yacht squadron to hold their annual review for 1893 on Lake Michigan in the neighborhood of Chicago. The only question is as to whether these fine, large steam crafts, can get into the lakes through the canals, there being no doubt at all but that the invitation would be eagerly accepted. Collector Clark has communicated with Minister of Marine Smith, at Ottawa, to learn the dimensions of all the Canadian canals on the route, so that it may be known to a certainty the largest craft that can come through to the lakes. But Capt. John Prindiville furnishes all the information desired, and from an official source.

Lachine canal—Length of canal, miles, 8 1-2; number of locks, 5; dimensions of locks, feet, 270x45; depth of water on sills, feet, 9 to 16.

Beauharnois canal—length of canal, 11 1-4 miles; number of locks, 9; dimensions of locks, 200x45 feet; depth of water on sills, 9 feet.

Cornwall canal—Length of canal, 11 1-2 miles; number of locks, 6; dimensions of locks, 200x45 feet; depth of water on sills, 9 feet.

Farren's Point canal—Length of canal, 3-4 miles; number of locks, 1; dimensions of locks, 200x45 feet; depth of water on sills at ordinary level, 9 feet.

Rapid de Plat canal—length of canal, 4 miles; number of locks, 2; dimensions of locks, 200x45; depth of water on sills, 9 feet.

Galops canal—Length of canal, 7 5-8 miles; number of locks, 2; dimensions of locks, 200x45 feet; depth of water on sills, 9 feet.

Welland canal—Length of canal, 26 3-4 miles; number of locks, 25; dimensions of locks, 270x45 feet; depth of water on sills, 14 feet.

The Electra, the flagship of the New York Yacht club, measures 174 feet over all, has 23 feet beam and 12 feet depth of hold, drawing perhaps 10 feet of water. This craft is probably as large as any in the squadron, and all can come through by lightening or by the use of camels to buoy them up.

The Tillie, reported to have been purchased by Gen. R. Torrence, of Chicago, is 180 feet in length. Being narrow, she can get through by using air casks or camels to buoy her up. Narrow vessels, like these pleasure steamers, 180 feet long, will have no trouble as to length, but all craft must light up to nine feet. The broadest beam for a craft 180 feet long, in order to get through these canals, is 24 feet.

These figures are of general interest and importance just now, because during the World's fair vessels of all description will be passing to and from the lakes and there will be quite a lake-Atlantic trade. Merchant vessels 175 feet long can come through drawing nine feet of water. This is the greatest depth.

In returning, the yachts can run the St. Lawrence river rapids if they choose without lighting up, and without special danger.

At Duluth.

Duluth, May 11.—Wheat charters are dull with nothing done; vesselmen refuse offers of 3 cents to load next week.

At Cleveland.

Cleveland, May 11.—Coal rate to Manitowac and Green Bay advanced to 50 cents to-day. Two ore charters from Ashland were made at $1.15. There is no sign of weakness in the market, however, as Ashland shippers have held out against the Duluth grain rate for two weeks past, although Escanaba is strong at 75 cents and Marquette at $1.

At Buffalo.

Buffalo, May 11.—Shippers are letting out a little coal today. Charters: Susan Peck, Chicago, 40 cents; Kendall, Hoag, McDougall, Saginaw, 40 cents; Burlington, Bay City, 30 cents.

John B. Lyon Ashore.

Sand Beach, May 11.—The steamer John B. Lyon with 120,000 bushels of oats from Chicago went ashore at 8 o'clock last night at Forest bay on a rock bottom. The tug Champion got her afloat, but in working out the steamer backed on another reef.

She is a foot out aft and six inches forward. The schooner Quimby has gone to lighter her cargo. Lighters are also coming here from Port Huron.

Indications are for a gale and the boat may suffer severely. The Lyon is owned by Frank Perue, of Buffalo, and is worth $100,000, fully covered by insurance.

Port Huron, May 11.—Every effort is being made to save the Lyon, ashore near Sand Beach, before gale sets in.

Three tugs left here for the wreck this morning. She is in a bad place and swift work is required.

Schooner Ashore.

Cheboygan, May 11.—The schooner Annie M. Peterson is on Poe's reef. The tug Sweepstakes moved her 12 feet, but she still hung on the rocks, being out two feet. The Peterson has coal from Oswego to Chicago. A heavy northeast gale now prevails.

LOCAL MARINE NEWS.

Presque Isle will open for the season June 15.

The burning of the Spinney is a sad loss to Captain Jack Dunseith.

The Idlewild will go on the route between Toledo and Detroit May 26.

Marine business is unusually dull. There is not a vessel loading at the O. C. docks.

J. G. Clarke has been appointed general excursion agent of the Presque Isle company.

The tug Torrent and raft are still out in the bay and cannot come in until the current subsides.

An effort will be made to raise the Spinney to-day. She will be laid up for about two weeks.

To be the Battle Slogan This Year.

Grover Cleveland the Man to Lead.

Rousing Speeches Delivered and a Ringing Platform Adopted at the Convention Held in Concord.

Concord, N. H., May 11.—The democratic state convention to choose delegates to the Chicago convention was called to order in Phoenix hall at 11:05 a. m. to-day by John P. Hartlett of Manchester, chairman of the state committee.

The officers and committees selected at the meeting of the state committee last night were elected officers of the convention by acclamation. Hon. Oliver E. Branch, of Weare, was escorted to the president's chair. On being introduced by Chairman Bartlett, Mr. Batch was warmly received. He spoke as follows:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention: Two questions of vital consequence to the people of this nation will come before the people in the coming campaign—tariff reform and administrative reform. The question of the free coinage of silver will be involved in this, though not as a strict party question; for, in all probability, the republican party will not repeat its action of four years ago, when it put into its platform a free silver plank.

"Certainly the democratic party will be found upon the side of stable and honest currency. Nothing in legislation was ever devised more vicious than the acts of congress for which the republican party is responsible, which for years has made the government an enforced purchaser of silver bullion and compelled its coinage into a depreciated currency.

"Who shall lead the party of the people in this campaign for an honest silver dollar and for tariff and administrative reform? Obviously he must be a statesman in whom the people have confidence; honest, true and steadfast; one who, like William of Orange, may inscribe upon his banner 'Calm amid the waves.'

"Burke has described a class of politicians 'whom no man alive can divine from any adherence to parties, or opinions or principles, from any order or system in their ideas, what part they were going to take in any debate,' and he refers to 'the habit and spirit of low cabal and intrigue which I have never in one instance seen united with a capacity for a sound and manly policy.'

"Not from men of that class and habit can the democratic party choose its leaders if it is to secure victory. He must be a man whose reverence for the government is as profound and sincere as Washington's; whose adherence to the principles of individual liberty as opposed to every class and sectional distinction, is as firm as Jefferson's, and whose fidelity to the delegated sovereign powers of the government, and to the reserved, undelegated sovereign rights of the state, are as inflexible and uncompromising as Jackson's.

"He must be a man to whom the humble, uninfluential people may turn with confidence for relief from the thraldom of taxation, which the necessities of war alone justified, and which the conditions of peace imperatively condemn; a man whom business men may trust for the extension of our domestic and foreign trade and the development of our immense resources of forest, field and mine; a man who will continue to attract to our standard the enthusiastic youth of the land, who will see in a campaign, in which are involved moral and political principles of the greatest consequence, something worthy of their support, and who will scorn to be moved by the gospel of hate and despair with which, for more than a decade, the republican party has won its victories.

"A man in whom conservative men everywhere will see the promise of a country wholly tranquilized, sectional strife calmed by the benign influence of impartial laws impartially executed and prosperity following with equal step triumphant march of toil.

"In such a cause victory will be deserved. With such a cause, with such a leader, victory is assured."

The Platform.

The democrats of New Hampshire approve of a system of taxation so adjusted as to produce the necessary revenue for the legitimate requirements of an honest government economically administered with the least possible burden on the people, and affording such incidental protection as meets every reasonable demand of American labor; and they denounce the protective system so-called, developed under republican governmental control and embodied in the McKinley bill of the Fifty-first congress, as antagonistic in spirit and purpose to every principle of honest government; as strengthening monopoly rather than encouraging labor and fostering trusts and combinations which gather in the substance of the people and in return for the privilege pay a liberal tribute into the campaign funds of the party through whose instrumentality the system has been established and maintained.

They approve of a currency sufficient in volume for the proper demands of business but presenting no device which can be manipulated to the advantage of any individual or class at the expense of any other—a currency whose every dollar is equal in value to every other.

They recognize in Grover Cleveland a great leader in tariff reform, who, with an energy that never failed, with a directness that never swerved, with a sublime faith that never faltered, led the way through the reverses in 1888 to an overwhelming victory in 1890 and under whose continued leadership there will be achieved a crowning triumph in 1892.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

Delphos, O., May 11.—(Special.)—A farmer by the name of Jones attempted to cross the T., St. L. & K. C. railroad and the rear of his wagon was struck by an engine pulling the passenger train which is due here at 7:30 a. m. The wagon was completely demolished and the man was thrown about twenty feet and seriously hurt. The train escaped injury.

BRAZILIAN AFFAIRS.

New York May 11.—A special to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says: A strong movement has been initiated by the radicals against alleged dictatorial acts of President Pelligrini.

Threats have been made to contest the recent election of Louis Saenz Pena on account of alleged frauds. The new Argentine ministr to Washington will probably be Senor Nicolas Calvo.

THE DEMOCRATS OF IOWA

Stand Firmly by Governor Horace Boies.

They Want Him Nominated for President.

Strong Arguments Advanced by the Western Man Why the Eastern Man Should Not be Selected.

Des Moines, Ia., May 11.—Temporary Chairman J. C. Hills, of Davenport, upon taking the chair thanked the Iowa democratic convention for the honor. He repelled the charge made by the republicans, so-called, that he was a renegade from the ranks of the republican party, and declared that there was no longer any republican party in Iowa.

The organization posing under that name, he averred, was the prohibition party in disguise.

He then took up the McKinley bill and endeavored to show its ill effects upon the farmers of Iowa. He concluded with an eulogium of Horace Boies, whom he declared to be a man without enemies and a most available candidate for president.

He deprecated the quarrels of the democracy in New York and hinted that while Mr. Cleveland would be nominated by acclamation if there were factional differences, yet the party should carefully consider the situation before taking a step which might alienate a section of the democracy in the Empire state.

J. E Markley, of Mason City, the permanent chairman, congratulated the democrats of Iowa upon the prospects for victory in the coming campaign.

He declared that the tariff rather than the liquor issue helped to overcome the republicans in 1890, and that this issue was still paramount and would gain fresh adherents as the campaign wore on. He attacked the McKinley bill at considerable length and declared that the verdict of 1890 would be confirmed in 1892.

He closed with an appeal to the national democracy to be wise, to frown down factional jealousies and to nominate Gov. Boies for president. "Choose him," said he, "to lead you in this fight and surely will the people confirm your choice; and when the ides of November are past so surely will a triumphant national democracy inaugurate Horace Boies."

IN Y. M. C. A. CIRCLES

A Bicycle Run to Occur This Evening.

A Native of Armenia to Speak—The New Building—Annual Meeting Soon — Other Matters.

The Y. M. C. A. bicycle clubs will enjoy a run this evening, weather permitting, leaving the association building at 7:30 o'clock. The course will be Monroe, Collingwood, Cherry, Canton and Adams. The members' friends are invited to join.

T. H. Tracy has been appointed a Y. M. C. A. director, to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the resignation of S. R. Maclaren.

Nothing has been done of late in the matter of a new Y. M. C. A. building. It is probable, however, that the new board with five new directors, soon to be elected, will do something toward the construction of the new home, of which the association is sadly in need.

The annual meeting of the association will be held Wednesday, June 1.

Friday evening H. E. King will address the boys on "How to Enjoy Life." This will be the last lecture of the season.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Timotheus Tamnosian, a native of Antioch, will address the juniors on the customs of the boys of America. He will appear in his native costume and will also dress up two of the juniors.

Sunday next will be Bible Sunday at the 4 o'clock association meeting. There will be an address on how to study the Bible, and after the service all who attend will receive a copy of H. L. Hasting's "Inspiration of the Bible," a book that has a sale of over 2,000,000 copies.

The recent indorsement of the Keeley treatment by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, and that of the United States government, ought to satisfy anyone that the Keeley cure for the liquor, opium and tobacco diseases, is a harmless remedy, and a Godsend to humanity. Every good thing has its imitators, and the Keeley cure is no exception. There are only two genuine Keeley cure institutes in Ohio, at Marysville and Madisonville.

The Marysville Institute is under the supervision of two eminent physicians, whose administration of the Keeley treatment to over 500 persons since January, 1891, has not been attended by a single accident or death. Our home treatment for the liquor and opium habits is far more successful than the imitation cures that have sprung up. The home treatment for the tobacco habit is having a large sale. Address

The Keeley Institute, Marysville, O.

LAYLIN TO ORATE.

Norwalk, O., May 11.—Hon. L. C. Laylin has been invited by a unanimous vote of M. F. Wooster post, G. A. R., to deliver the address on Memorial day in this city.

WORK OF THE DEADLY WIRE.

Piqua, O., May 11.—John Wenk, a lineman for the electric light company, was instantly killed this afternoon by touching a live wire while at work on a pole.

Special United States Treasury Agent Soehngen made a large seizure of Sumatra tobacco in Chicago on Tuesday which the holders had offered to sell at remarkably low rates. An account says: "The tobacco seized was a part of an enormous quantity which has been entered at the port of San Francisco, where customs frauds have been so extensive lately. The appraiser—one Leary—was a short time ago dismissed from his position, and it was discovered that three big tobacco importers had been importing Samatra tobacco, which is dutiable at $2 per pound, and through the aid of Appraiser Leary had it entered as a cheaper grade of tobacco for 'filling,' and on which the duty is but forty cents per pound."

Prevalence of Kidney Disease.

The large demand, in this and foreign lands, for BUCHU-PAIBA is the best evidence of its reliability as a remedy in Kidney and Genito-Urinary diseases, affections of the Bladder, &c. The increase in Kidney Complaints in this country in recent years has been arrested to a great extent through the merits of this new remedy BUCHU-PAIBA, which without doubt is the best known treatment for irritation, inflammation and catarrh of the Bladder, and the various diseased Genito-Urinary discharges. It is put up in convenient bottles that sell for $1.00 at Druggists or Chemists, or may be had of the manufacturer, express prepaid, by forwarding $1.00 to E. S. Wells, Jersey City, N. J.

Cockroaches, Ants,

Beetles, water bugs. The most effective and permanent remedy is—for two or three nights to sprinkle ROUGH ON RATS dry powder unmixed, on, in, about and down the sink and drain pipe; scatter it well but thinly all over the sink. First thing in the morning wash it all away down the drain pipe, repeat two or three nights, when all the insects from garret to cellar will disappear. The secret of this is in the fact that wherever the bugs or insects may be during the day, they must go to the sinks for water during the night. They can't stand ROUGH ON RATS in their water. This is the quickest, most effective and satisfactory remedy. ROUGH ON RATS being a poison, it should be used in this way only at night and washed away early in the morning. Another way is to mix a tablespoonful of ROUGH ON RATS with a half pound of brown sugar. Sprinkle it on rear of cupboard shelves or on plates, or on sheets of paper placed high out of reach of children.

SUSPENDED ANIMATION.

An Interesting Case Reported from Springfield.

Springfield, O., May 11.—A remarkable case of suspended animation is attracting the attention of physicians and non-professional people in this city.

Mrs. Alice Gray, of Spring street, a middle-aged woman, has apparently died four or five times during the past year, has been "laid out" for burial, and has each time caused terror and astonishment by returning to vigorous life.

The last trance, or whatever it is, occurred last evening. The woman apparently died and attendants were busy performing the usual preparations for interment.

The limbs were rigid, circulation dead, and respiration, as far as could be ascertained, ended. Suddenly the corpse arose and glared wildly around to the horror of the attendants.

Restoratives were applied and the woman is apparently getting along nicely. Dr. Wildanin, a reputable physician, who attended her, vouches for the truth of the above. He says he cannot diagnose the case, but she seems to be affected with spasms.

THE CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

Regular Meetings Held, with Fair Attendance.

The New Century Club Listens to a Paper by Mr. Tillinghast—Woodbridge W. C. T. U.—St. Cecelia Concert and Other Events.

The New Century club held a most interesting meeting last evening with the Misses Law, 1231 Huron street. Mr. Tillinghast's paper on "The Chief End of Man" was a scholarly and philosophical presentation of one of the latest phases of thought, that man's chief end is perfect mental and physical development. Mrs. Rosa L. Segur presided and took part in the discussion following the paper, as did also Dr. and Mrs. North, Mrs. Bissell, Mr. Kirby, Miss Law and others. The last meeting previous to vacation will be with the president of the club, Mrs. Jermaine, when a review of the book, "Who Lies," a sort of symposium, will take the place of the regular papet.

An immense crowd filled Memorial hall last night to attend the literary and musical entertainment given by St. Cecilia society No. 531. Uhl Bro.'s orchestra opened the musicale with an overture and the attention of the audience was held until the close of the entertainment, in spite of the stiffling atmosphere. Mr. C. J. Kirschner made the welcome address in his usual happy manner. The growth of the society in the past three years has been phenomenal, and their good works numberless. The ladies are to be congratulated on the success of this, their first entertainment.

Woodbridge W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. J. W. Callard, 629 Elm street, yesterday afternoon and was fairly attended, though the inclement weather kept many away. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Callard presided and Mrs. Pike conducted devotional exercises. After the discussion of several lines of temperance work the following delegates were elected to represent the union at the county convention to be held at Maumee, May 18 and 19: Mrs. Irving Hone, Mrs. J. B. Plummer, Mrs. M. E. Boice, Mrs. Geo. Pike. Alternates—Mrs. J. K. Deppen, Mrs. W. S. Thurston, Mrs. Ada Baldwin, Mrs. J. J. Freeman. Mrs. A. A. Hitchens, Mrs. Dr. Leighton and Mrs. J. W. Callard will attend as ex-officio members. The ladies will leave Wednesday morning, taking a train on the Clover Leaf at 6:25. The joint committee of delegates to the county convention will meet May 16 at Emory hall. The committee is Mrs. Hitchens, Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. Boice.

The secretary read a letter from the president, Mrs. W. R. Jones, tendering her resignation on account of ill health. This was accepted with much regret, and it was decided to let the vice-presidents act until the regular election of officers in September. The meeting then adjourned to meet with Mrs. Leighton, Madison street, Tuesday afternoon, May 24.

The Central W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. J. S. Eck last night, but transacted no business of interest to the public.

Mr. E. W. Tolerton conducted the regular meeting of Simpson circle last night, the subject for discussion being the late war.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church is holding a meeting at the church this afternoon.

A Y parlor meeting will be held at the home of Miss Una Crimm, 2327 Ashland avenue, Friday evening, May 13.

The Livingstone mission band will hold its monthly meeting Wednesday evening in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church. Miss Wilson will address the band.

Commencing to-morrow the Theosophical Reading club will meet every Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wheeler at their apartments, No. 215 Tenth street, opposite the Vienna flats.

Sporting Notes.

The Cowboys will be here to-day.

Perry Werden got a homer and a three-bagger yesterday. Good boy, Perry.

Columbus played Kansas City to a tie yesterday and rain stopped the game in the 8th inning.

Five double plays were made in the Cleveland-Boston game yesterday. This is base ball right.

The Pathfinders challenge any club in the city under 18 years; amount to be agreed upon. H. Spier, manager.

The Speranzas challenge any club in the city whose members are under 18 years, for Sunday, May 22. If accepted answer through the Bee.

We, the Rodgers, challenge the Hudsons for a game of ball Sunday, May 15th, at 2:30 p. m., for $2.50 or $5.00. If accepted answer through the Bee. Grounds to be agreed

The Speranzas have organized with the following players: D. Molloy, ss.; W. Leary, 1b.; J. Daily, 3b.; J. Hanly, lf.; F. Cunningham, 2b.; E. Owens, rf.; D. Burt, cf. and p.; W. Jones, c., and T. Molloy, cf. and p.

The Toledo has ball club is not getting credit for the work it does. The scores sent to outside papers give Toledo the worst of it, and the boys have just grounds for entering a protest. As an example, the Associated Press credited Schelbeck with 3 hits in one of the games when he only made 1. Give the boys their due.

FINDLAY NOTES.

Findlay, O., May 11.—(Special)—Findlay's democracy will be well represented at Kenton to-morrow to nomonate Fremont Oxford for congress.

It is said Hon. John Sherman is taking a hand in the congressional fight.

W. P. Rowland has gone to Denver for his health.

Great preparations are being made for May festival next week.

REFINERY BURNED.

London, May 11.—The Oxford sugar refinery at Greenock, Scotland, was destroyed by fire last night. The loss is £30,000.

Only the rudiments of the possibilities of American millionaireism have yet been developed. Mr. Carnegie has done some things and there is a prospect of some being done in the Vanderbilt family, but imagination and American money have hardly co-operated long enough yet to show what can come of them. They seem to have got together to some purpose, though, in William Astor Chanler, who leaves England for Africa on June 1, on an exploring expedition. Mr. Chanler expects to be gone two years, and will be escorted by an army of 200 men. Sic itur ut Astor.

TRYING TIMES.

Vexations That Beset a Bride and Groom During the Honeymoon.

The question of reform in the wedding journey is now being agitated by leaders of English society. They maintain that much time and money are thrown away needlessly on this ideal trip; and that not only is there no adequate compensation for this loss, but that frequently the honeymoon is thereby robbed of its blissful serenity.

Not every newly married couple, either in England or America, will second this declaration, of course, more especially at starting for this longed-for tour; the greater number would, however, there is reason to believe, do so—at least sotto voce—on the homeward journey.

A dozen letters have appeared this week in a London daily suggesting that the honeymoon should be curtailed and simplified. One humorous writer, who dates his letter from Grosvenor Square, the most fashionable part of London, declares emphatically that the newly-married husband tires of the honeymoon. He may get very tired of it, or rather so, or only just a little, but he tires of it. He may idolize, adore, love, or merely like his young wife; but, by whichever gradation of sentiment he is attached to her, he still tires of the honeymoon. Sometimes, indeed, it is added, the more he loves his spouse, the more the wedding journey annoys him.

The period of betrothal is an irritating and annoying one for the man. The wedding preparations, so highly appreciated by the bride, are a source of continual worry for the bridegroom. From the discussion over the bride's dress to the gifts; from the social to the civil ceremonies, everything represents minute and assiduous labor; so much so, that unless he is aided by immense love, great longing or strong interest he could not persevere in his task. Therefore, the bridegroom, when the wedding day arrives, is in a state of acute irritability (no man can possibly be tranquil on this day, unless he is an imbecile), and the departure for the honeymoon, always harassed by complications, delays and confusion, only augments his annoyance.

Then, again, it is pointed out that the journey, as a journey, offers him no attraction. Twenty times or more, perhaps, he has been over the same ground. The souvenirs of some of the places passed on the road are the reverse of diverting. Here he was ill for a month in a hotel, there he lost a lot of money on a horse, elsewhere he recalls a story of secret love. If, on the other hand, the remembrances are pleasant ones, he is none the more satisfied. The last time he stopped at such a place he was absolutely a free man, and, however much he adores his little wife now, liberty is also an adorable thing, the loss of which causes a poignant regret. He idolizes his wife, undoubtedly, but this existence of two months without repose, hurrying from place to place, combining the duties of cicerone and official paymaster with that of spouse—and what an amount of extras are involved in a wedding journey!

All these things are prejudiced to his temper, his health and his love. To complain of the exorbitant prices which he, as a newly married man, is condemned to pay, would be ignoble; to dispute them would be mean. He cannot leave his wife alone at the hotel, neither can he take half a dozen steps anywhere without her. This eternal companionship may be the felicity dreamed of, but it is not the real thing after all. A cigarette smoked alone, a chat or two with a friend, are small pleasures prohibited to the young husband; neither can he have an evening at the theater, nor a short hour at club—nothing! He is on his wedding trip! Nothing! Nothing!

According to another correspondent it is next to impossible for things to go smoothly and pleasantly during the honeymoon. The young couple know little, probably, of each other's characters before their union; now, therefore, is the time for mutual observation. If the husband perceives his wife is dull he is offended; if she is indifferent he considers he has been deceived; if she is gay he holds her a thoughtless, trivial-minded person; if she is very, very gay he decides she is a coquette. A married man is difficult to please sometimes.

The young wife observes her partner likewise. If he is too free and easy she thinks him cold toward her; if he is humble in his demeanor she gets too proud; if he is disposed to give her a little liberty she is uneasy; if he is jealous she is unhappy. And the opportunities for such observation and reflection occur continually in the course of the honeymoon. The bride discovers that her husband is inclined to be economical and he that she is decidedly extravagant by nature, or vice versa, and consequent disillusions.

Or again she perceives that he has had some great passion previously, and he that his wife is too fond of theaters and amusements. During the betrothal these delinquencies and inclinations were carefully concealed, and perhaps it was better so. Every hour in the day furnishes food for dispute on the wedding tour if the happy couple be so disposed—about the hour for dinner, the trip to be taken, the dress to wear, the letter to be written, the telegram to be dispatched; trifles, it is true, and squabbles of a few minutes only, but each one brings disillusions with it. It is true likewise that there is love to overrule all these little disagreements. But alas! alas! it is impossible to love deeply on the wedding tour! And so both bride and bridegroom are dissatisfied with the journey, and both are glad to return home.

Nevertheless, as has been said, it is not the abolition, but the reform, of the honeymoon which is advised by our neighbors. No doubt, as a third correspondent writes, when the institution was first devised it was poetic and fascinating and originated in an enchanting idea of flight and solitude. But, as usual, man—and perhaps woman, too, in this case—intending to improve upon the original idea, have greatly spoiled it, so that the wedding trip, which primitively was really inviting and attractive for young love, is now transformed into a hurried and inconvenient journey, attended with vexation and worry, which is a very bad beginning of a life to be passed happily together for years afterward. To remedy this inappropriate state of affairs it is suggested that "the noble, tender and seductive institution of the honeymoon be freed from all the unnecessary expense, fatigue and mental worry which adorns it, so to say, in the present day—that all that has been added to the institution by human vanity and vulgarity be discarded: in a word, that the wedding tour be reinvested with all its pristine poesy."

Mr. S. G. Derry
Of Providence, R. I.,

Widely known as proprietor of Derry's Waterproof Harness Oil, tells below of his terrible sufferings from Eczema and his cure by

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

"Gentlemen: Fifteen years ago I had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, which was followed by eczema or salt rheum, breaking out on my right leg. The humor spread all over my legs, back and arms,

A Foul Mass of Sores, swollen and itching terribly, causing intense pain if the skin was broken by scratching, and discharging constantly. It is impossible to describe my suffering in those years of agony and torture. I spent in futile efforts to get well, and was discouraged and ready to die. At this time I was unable to lie down in bed, had to sit up all the time, and was unable to walk without crutches. I had to hold my arms away from my body, and had to have my arms, back and legs bandaged by my faithful wife twice a day.

"Finally a friend who was visiting at our house, urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I began by taking half a teaspoonful. My

Stomach Was All Out of Order

But the medicine soon corrected this, and in six weeks I could see a change in the condition of the humor which nearly covered my body. It was driven to the surface by the Sarsaparilla, the sores soon healed, and the scales fell off. I was soon able to give up bandages and crutches, and a happy man I was. I had been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven months; and since that time, nearly two years, I have worn no bandages whatever and my legs and arms are sound and well.

The Delight

of myself and wife at my recovery it is impossible to tell. To all my business friends in Boston and over the country, I recommend from personal experience." S. G. DERRY, 45 Bradford street, Providence, R. I.

This offer is open until January 1st., 1893. For particulars address the undersigned.

ACME BLACKING is made of pure alcohol, other liquid dressings are made of water. Water costs nothing. Alcohol is dear. Who can show us how to make it without alcohol so that we can make ACME BLACKING as cheap as water dressing, or put it in fancy packages like many of the water dressings, and then charge for the outside appearance instead of charging for the contents of the bottle?

Give a Concert at the Washington Street Congregational Church.

The Aeolian quartet of Hillsdale college is composed of four young ladies who harmonize not only in their singing but in their personal relations. The concert given by them last evening, assisted by G. L. Padgett, was highly enjoyable and elicited hearty applause from the large audience. The participants were: The Misses Lena M. Seley, soprano; Julia M. Reynolds, mezzo-soprano; Etta C. Squier, mezzo-contralto; Lelia I. Smith, contralto, and Mr. G. L. Padgett, who recited "A Slick Spot" and "Sam's Letter." AMONG THE BICYCLERS.

Messrs. Colton and Chapman Run Over the Route of the Relay Race.

The cycling boys have not yet decided on a location for their outing grounds, but the committee is still looking about. It is desired to have a quarter mile track this summer for practice.

All the arrangements have been completed for the relay race against time from Chicago to New York. Lew Colton, who has charge of the race from Toledo to Cleveland, in company with Geo. Chapman, made the run to Norwalk this week and found the roads in very bad condition. It is hoped, however, that they will be in shape before the race, as the Toledo boys want to make a good record.

CHIEF DETECTIVE SPORE.

The Police Commissioners Left It to Chief Raitz to Decide.

Mayor Emmick and Police Commissioners Stager, Waring and Potter met yesterday afternoon to settle the matter of who should bear the title of chief detective on the Toledo force. The gentlemen decided that the matter should be left to Chief Raitz and washed their hands of the appointment. The chief, inasmuch as Wm. H. Spore has in his possession a commission as chief detective, and recognizing Mr. Spore's ability, decided that he should remain at the head of the detectives. Both Mr. Spore and Mr. Manly were called before the commissioners and asked if they were satisfied with the chief's decision. They said they were, and so the matter was settled.

THE TUG SPINNEY BURNED.

She Sinks at Her Dock Near Monroe Street Wharf.

About midnight the tug Spinney, commanded by Captain Jack Dunseith, was discovered to be on fire, and before assistance could be rendered a hole was burned in her side and she sank at her dock back of Wyck's hotel, near the Monroe street dock.

The fireman, who was asleep on board the boat, was awakened by the suffocating smoke, and he had barely time to escape before she sank.

The Spinney was owned by Captain Jack Dunseith and C. C. Curry. She was valued at about $5,000. The loss is estimated at $1,200. The upper works escaped damage, and the machinery is uninjured.

EDGEWATER ASSOCIATION.

Annual Meeting—The Proposed Railroad Discussed.

Last evening the Edgewater association held its annual meeting at Secretary Gunckel's office in the Boody house block and elected the following officers: President, George H. Allen; vice president, P. Hassenzahl; secretary, John E. Gunckel; financial secretary, John Stein; treasurer, J. L. Parks; trustees, George H. Allen, John Landgraff, jr.; Fred Stolberg, W. G. Gardiner, A. B. Couldwell, G. J. Grosenbacher.

The organization is on a sound financial footing and flourishing.

As stated in the Bee a week ago, the matter of a street railroad to Edgewater is an assured go.

A committee consisting of Messrs. L. K. Parks, J. E. Eaton, J. H. Ainsworth and W. L. Dawson, presented a petition at the meeting last evening for the right of way for the contemplated railroad and the same was readily granted.

What with the proposed new hotel at Point Place and other attractions, Edgewater promises to become quite a popular resort.

THE HUMANE SOCIETY.

Not Much Business Considered at the Monthly Meeting.

The Humane society held their regular monthly meeting last night. Mr. Bond presided. The attendance was very small and but little business was transacted. Humane Agent France read his report which was a spicy, interesting record of a long list of good deeds done during the month. The following is the report in brief: Cruelty and neglect of children, 4; cruelty to wife and family, 8; convictions for cruelty to wife and family, 3; admonitions for cruelty to wife and family, 2; investigations for cruelty to children, and not restrained, 1; charges withdrawn by wife, 4; desertions, 3; homes found, 4; children brought under the notice of the society, 37; abuse of animals, 3; overloading, 5; admonition for abuse to animals, 4; relief furnished to animals, 1; horses laid up, 5; horses shot, 4; lame animals, 2; dogs shot, 2; convictions for cruelty to animals, 2; marked off the docket by prosecuting attorney, 1. Total number of cases, 43.

Bills presented: Brown, Eager & Hull, for stamps, $1; ice bill, $1.50, which were ordered paid. Messrs. Rundell and Buck were appointed a committee to audit all bills before approving them.

The only special matter brought before the society was the careless manner in which the electric street railway is laid from Adams an Summit to the Oliver house, the imperfect insulation of the wires being great cruelty to animals, and a constant menace to human life. The Humane agent was instructed to investigate the defects and have them remedied at once.

WABASH AND CLOVER LEAF

Have a Word to Say Regarding Sixth Class Rules

At the Central Traffic Association Meeting—The Proposition to Advance This Class Again Was Defeated.

At the meeting of the freight department of the Central Traffic association yesterday the proposition to advance the rate on all sixth-class freight except grain and its products to the former basis of twenty-five cents per 100 lbs., Chicago to New York, was submitted to a vote of the members. This was in accordance with the recommendation adopted last week by the Chicago lines. The proposition was defeated by the St. Louis roads, the negative votes being cast by the Wabash, the Vandalia, and the Toledo, St. Louis & Kansas City. The representatives of these three roads expressed themselves in favor of advancing the rate on all sixth-class articles to the 25-cent basis, but would not agree to make an exception of grain and its products. As all talk about advancing the grain and flour rate was regarded by the other lines as a mere waste of time no agreement could be reached, and the matter will now go to the joint committee to the Central Traffic and Trunk Line associations for final action.

To Various Ohio Points.

The Central Traffic association has authorized the lines within its territory to sell tickets at one lowest first-class fare for the round trip: Ohio Sunday School convention, Lima, O., June 7-9; Ohio State Teachers' association, Cleveland, June 28-30; Democratic State Convention, Columbus, June 14-15; American Medical association, Detroit, June 7-11; League of American Wheelmen, Washington, July 18-20; Prohibition National convention, Cincinnati, June 29-30; Ohio Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., Cleveland, May 17-21; Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Buffalo, June 13-15; Baptist Young People's Union of America, Detroit, July 14-17; Western Gas association, Detroit, May 18 to 20; and Old Order German Baptists, June 5 to 9. Authority is also given to sell round trip special excursion tickets from any point to any place within a radius of two hundred miles at one fare for the round trip on July 2, 3 and 4, good only on date of sale, and good returning on date stamped on back by agent at destination, but not good for return after July 5.

Special rates on the certificate plan have been granted as follows: Grand Lodge of Ohio, Knights of Pythias, Columbus, May 23 to 26; Master Brewers' association of the United States, Boston, May 24 to 26; annual conference of college students of Y. M. C. A., Northfield, Mass., July 2 to 13; educators of colored youth, Wilberforce, O., July 13 to August 19, 1892.

WANTED A RECEIVER

Appointed for Sheon & Slatt's Hardware Store.

Several Chattel Mortgages Involved—Possession Given—Other Parties Interested.

Application was made in common pleas court at noon to-day for the appointment of a receiver for the hardware store of Sheon & Slatts, East Toledo.

Stollberg & Clapp and others held chattel mortgages on the stock, amounting to about $3,000.

A short time ago Sheon & Slatts gave possession of the stock to the mortgagees.

The Grasser & Brand Brewing company levied on the stock, subject to any rights of the mortgagees.

It seems the business was not managed satisfactory to all parties, hence the proceedings for a receiver. An injunction was also granted restraining Sheon & Slatts from interfering in any way with the stock pending adjustment of affairs.

BAD ECZEMA ON BABY.

Head One Solid Sore. Itching Awful. Had to Tie His Hands to Cradle. Cured by Cuticura.

Our little boy broke out on his head with a bad form of eczema, when he was four months old. We tried three doctors, but they did not help him. We then used your three CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using them eleven weeks exactly according to directions, he began to steadily improve, and after the use of them for seven months his head was entirely well. When we began using it his head was a solid sore from the crown to his eyebrows. It was also all over his ears, most of his face, and small places on different parts of his body. There were sixteen weeks that we had to keep his hands tied to the cradle and hold them when he was taken up; and had to keep mittens tied on his hands to keep his finger nails out of the sores, as he would scratch if he could in any way get his hands loose. We know your CUTICURA REMEDIES cured him. We feel safe in recommending them to others.

There is apprehension in republican circles that Senator Sherman will vote for removal of the tax from refined sugars, if he has opportunity. Senator Sherman, as father of the anti-trust bill, could not vote otherwise with any show of consistency.

A Boston merchant writes to a Boston paper to say that the price has advanced on woolen goods and greater, in proportion, on the cheaper goods. Will some protectionist tell us why the price of wool in the fleece doesn't also go up? The tax provision has performed only half its promised mission.

Nevada has Silver League rolls signed by thousands of names, men pledged to vote for no man for president unless he shall be unreservedly in favor of free silver. Juvenile silver leagues are organized among the school children. Nevada has three electoral votes and is a republican state.

The New York World takes a very complacent view of revolutionists. It says:

The nihilism of Russia, the socialism of Germany, the anarchism of France, and all the other isms scattered through the world are simply the natural expression of ambition, without which man would be a dog or a wolf. Take away his right to grumble and to hit with his fist and you rob him of his birthright.

If the man who writes this generous sentiment were the one to get hit, and the World office were the one to get knocked into dynamitic fragments, he might take a diff rent view of the subject and use more discrimination in his classification.

Too few northern journals have reprinted Gen. Gordon's noble words uttered at the confederate veterans' reunion in New Orleans:

"The old order has passed and a new era has come. Blended now in one common citizenship and in one American brotherhood are the brave veterans of those vast armies which once met and grappled each other in deadly combat. Now forever united in the ennobling pursuits of peace, and pregnant future, they are resolved by their joint efforts to achieve a destiny higher and grander, if possible, than was ever anticipated or even hoped for by the founders of the republic."

And the sentiment was cheered to the echo.

Reliable trade journals attribute the closing down of iron mills in this country to over-stimulation and over-production. The Louisville Commercial finds that it is due to "the reduction of duty provided by the McKinley law." The Bee believes, and takes frequent occasion to say that it believes, inasmucht as the iron industry overtops all other industries in this country, and leads in the world's markets, it should be stricken from the "infant" list entirely, and the rich manufacturing companies be made to take their own chances in the world as hundreds of other industries must and do, without further shield from the government, or further country from the people.

France is watching the progress of our campaign and the trend of political affairs in this country with deep interest. Le Temps says, "We want to see just what democracy is, left to develop fully." The paper, which is a leading exponent of public opinion, "hopes for an international monetary conference and a modification of the McKinley law." A good many people this side the water are indulging in similar hopes. If our official countrymen could be impressed with the idea that a democratic form of government, the rights and duties of the people in self-rule, are on trial here, and the eyes of the world are literally upon us—some glorying in our success, others waiting for our downfall—perhaps they would not take such fearful risks, for party or personal gain.

Philadelphia is indulging in the extravagance of a new industrial census, and journals of that city say, from returns already in, the move is proven to be justifiable. The schedule presented by Porter and his men is entirely unreliable. The Times says, "Philadelphia wants credit for all its manufacturing interests and nothing more." It doesn't want padded reports to show that it leads in this line of industries. The only possible object Mr. Porter's enumerator could have had in overdoing the matter would be to prove his efficiency in hopes of promotion. The work is now in the hands of the secretary of the manufacturers' club, who will see that justice is done the city and that honest returns are given. Will the expensive and inefficient census experience of 1890 teach our people a lesson as to men and methods?

HERESY AGAINST THE REPUBLIC.

The Detroit News assumes a singular position about the constitution and laws of the country, suggested by the possibility of the Michigan legislature taking unto itself the power of choosing the presidential electors of the state.

Premising that such a law would be constitutional it says:

So far as the letter and original intention of the constitution is concerned, the legislature has the matter entirely in its own hands. But it is possible that practices which were originally favored, practiced and permitted by the law, have been so far departed from and so long abandoned, and would now be so repugnant to the popular will, that they would not now be tolerated without the penalty of revolution. In that case might it not be the duty of the courts to take cognizance of what might be termed the common law or custom of the country, and to declare that the people would not not tolerate without a resort to general armed resistance, cannot be constitutional even though not forbidden by the letter of the law or the original spirit of the law. Is there not an unconscious process of constitutional amendment always going on by reason of the changing habits and practices of the nation, which is quite as potent as the amendment which is done in form

This is rank heresy against a republican form of government, yet it is straightforward endorsement of the practice and evil tendency of the republican party. It is the boast of that political organization that the constitution is no stumbling block to whatever it pleases to do when in power. It is the practice of the party to ignore the organic law of the land. In this respect it radically differs from the democratic party, which is a strict construction constitutional party. There is no higher law for democrats than the constitution and with them the only way to amend or alter that sacred instrument is by methods provided by the constitution itself. There is no such thing as constitution changing in the United States by change of popular opinion without legal processes, hence the suggested idea of the News that the constitution has undergone a change by common consent of advanced ideas is not tenable ground. Neither can this implied unwritten change of the constitution by republican methods be in accord with public sentiment. It is antithetic to the British way and though we are not aping English methods, to their credit be it said that all reforms that become fundamental law in England spring from the people and are demanded in unmistaken voice and in a manner which compels parliament to concede measures which the nation approves. Here republican leaders plot for selfish purposes and republican congresses act from greedy and personal motives, and the finger of contempt is snapped at the people.

The constitution, the ancient document with its amendments lawfully made, is the unchangeable law of 1892, and whatever it provides will not provoke revolution in the minds of men broad enough to be American citizens. In its suggestion of revolution the News is grossly foreign and offensively un-American; and its proposition that the courts created by the constitution possess power to pass upon the constitutionality of that bill of rights is new doctrine in this republic. The News would better get closer to the constitution and learn lessons of freedom and justice from its everlasting principles.

A BOOM FOR CARLISLE.

There is one political writer on the editorial tripod in this country who speaks his mind, on occasions. That one is Henry Watterson. He has been represented as hostile to Cleveland. The sum of his hostility is shown in an extract from the three-column discussion of the situation in the Courier-Journal of Monday, double-leaded and bearing his signature. He says:

All of us are Ceveland men. Why? Because he made us a good president. Because we think him an able, courageous upright man. Because, above all, that he put himself at the head of the advancing forces of tariff reform, which had swelled from a mere column of Kentucky volunteers, led by Carlisle, to an enthusiastic army.

But, the question put is, can he be elected? "The force of his personality need not be denied," says Mr. Watterson, "but he is not the only representative democrat in the land." He pledges the democrats of Kentucky to support heartily whomever is nominated, "but," plainly and emphatically, "we prefer Carlisle." He mentions it as a suggestion, not to invite any fight or possibility of faction. In such case Mr. Carlisle would refuse his name. He cites the great character and ability of the Kentucky statesman and his devotion to the cause of tariff reform. In the condition of uncertainty which prevails, Mr. Watterson asks, "is it not the part of wisdom to take this middle course?" He concludes:

To my own mind these points seem incontrovertible, but I have not the least motive of interest or vanity to gratify - - - It is a question of duty as I conceive it. - - - I may be wrong. One thing I never have done and I never will do; and that is duck my head in the face of every wind that blows, pursuing a policy of silence, evasion and suppression because it is thought to be prudent. I am the highest sort of a high private, and, please God, I intend to remain so as long as I live.

The star-eyed goddess looks out of every line of the peroration. Mr. Watterson has admirers who would gladly see him promoted above the rank of private, but they will honor his declaration of principles. The suggestion offered is worthy of weighty consideration. The New York Recorder, from its republican standpoint, says, "Mr. Carlisle is too much a statesman and too little a politician." It is gratifying to know there are republicans who recognize a statesman when they see one. Hurrah for Carlisle, anyway; the clean, consistent, and able Kentuckian, whether or not the boom waxes large and strong.

PARTISAN VERSUS PATRIOT.

These several inconsistent editorial paragraphs appeared in the evening republican organ last night:

The enormous total of the river and harbor bill's appropriations shows the falsity of the democratic cry of "extravagance" against similar bills passed by republican congresses, and betrays the fact that democratic "economy" in this congress is to be in five-cent matters.

The river and harbor bill just passed creates a government liability of $48,000,000.

Democrats who refused the use of a government vessel to carry grain to the starving peasants of Russia, voted for a river and harbor bill of $48,000,000—the bulk of which goes to improve ssouthern streams.

No republican and no other broad-minded, intelligent man, will object to the large total of the river and harbor bill. It ought to be recognized that the improvement of the nation's waterways is of immense benefit to the whole people. Especially is this true with regard to the highly-important work inaugurated by one item of this bill—the establishment of a 20-foot channel through the great lakes. This will enable larger vessels to engage in lake traffic, which will mean cheaper transportation—and cheaper lake freight rates means cheaper freight rates on all the great lines of east and west railroads from the seaboard to Chicago and Duluth. And this means the saving of the cost of the improvement every year in the future to the farmers of the west in a permanent reduction in the cost of getting their grain to market.

If this last is true, and the excellent argument shows that it is, what are those other contemptible flings for? A newspaper that cared for a reputation for consistency and honesty would scarcely indulge in such an exhibition of political 'phobia.

A newspaper in any portion of the great lake region which, through ultra partisanship, joins the tirade against the river and harbor bill, is in mighty poor business. New York journals stand together against appropriations for the inland waterways for obvious and selfish reasons. Chicago is already a formidable rival, and whatever will improve facilities for transportation to that port, they believe lessens the business and importance of the seaboard metropolis. It is short-sighted policy for them, as whatever enhances the prosperity of one section helps all surrounding country.

It is unwarrantable for persons in Toledo or Cleveland or Buffalo to allow their small campaign chatter to add the least grain of comfort to the selfish opposition. The veriest hater of the south ought to be satisfied now that its cane and cotton fields are drowned by the Mississippi floods, and withhold the sneer. Out upon such contemptible partisanship.

All summer long, last year, in the old world, pilgrims flocked to view the "holy coat of Treves." The mecca of the French Catholics this side of the water at present, is the little church of St. Ann in New York city, where a fragment of the arm of the mother of the holy virgin, brought over by a pious priest, is on exhibition. A pilgrimage to some relic or shrine is the highest form of worship of which these simple people can conceive. It is a ceremonial that comes by inheritance and immemorial usage. It matters little what clouds of doubt overhang the shrine; they build the temple of their faith about it, and pay reverent homage.

The German people are learning to like our corn cakes. Special Commissioner Murphy, sent to introduce the use of corn bread in that country, sent a loaf of corn bread to every member of the Reichstag. A member of that body said, in print, "he wished the German representatives abroad would display equal energy for German interests."

Now Carl Schurz threatens to write a book that he may get even with his enemies. The scriptural warning is a good one to remember.

Times go by turns. Bridgeton, N. Y., is having a temperance crusade patterned after the memorable one in Ohio history.

Berlin is officially considering the project of a world's fair to be held in that city. It's catching.

IN THE HANDS OF LOBBYISTS.

Mr. Vest Makes a Serious Charge in the Senate.

Washington, May 11.—In the senate Mr. Vest has declared that Washington was infested with a gang of lobbyists who were trying to secure a franchise for a railroad through Yellowstone Park, which they proposed to sell to the Northern Pacific. he added that the house seemed to be under the domination of these lobbyists who would allow no bill to pass until they got their charter.

THE FIRST WILL MOVE

While Westminster Remains to Do Good

In Lower Town -- Resolutions Adopted by the Joint Presbyterian Meeting Last Night—Unanimity Prevails.

The First Presbyterian church will be removed to some part of the Seventh ward.

The committees representing the two churches met at the First church last evening, and after some discussion the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That it is expedient and that we ought to have another Presbyterian church in the west part of the city.

Resolved, That we are unable as a Presbyterian people to successfully maintain the two organizations in their present localities and establish another church in that part of the city referred to.

Resolved, That after a careful consideration of the whole subject as presented, it is the sense of the joint committee that the First Presbyterian church is the proper one to move and that Westminster church should remain to occupy the lower town field.

The resolution were signed by David Robison, jr., T. J. Brown, Alexander L. Smith, Charles Pratt, Joseph C. Benner, W. C. Chapman, committee from Westminster church, and by Joseph H. Ainsworth, Thomas Vanstone, Emanuel Frederick, F. O. Paddock, W. L. Rowland, J. R. Calder, the committee from First Presbyterian church.

The action taken will be reported to the congregations, after which the sense of the resolutions will be executed.

GOOD FOR FOSTORIA.

Fostoria, O., May 11.—Fostoria's mammoth flouring mills, the Harter, with a capacity of 1,500 barrels daily, sent a 30-car train load of flour to New York, where it will be transhipped to South America. In all there are about 5,250 barrels, representing 25,000 bushels of wheat and about $36,000.

DWINDLED TO SEVENTEEN

And They Will Banquet Until But Two are Alive.

A Unique Toledo Organization to Enjoy a Feast at the Toledo Club June 5.

Perhaps the most unique organization in Toledo is that known as the Charter Members' Association of the A. A. Rite of the Valley of Toledo. It was organized in 1880, the membership consisting of the 25 charter members of the Scottish Rite consistory. The members were to meet once a year around the banquet board until all but two had passed away to the great beyond. Of the 25 members 17 are now living, and Sunday, June 5, the anniversary day of the organization, they will feast at the Toledo club.

The surviving members are W. W. Ainsworth, Clarence E. Armstrong, David R. Austin, Charles E. Bliven, now of Chicago; Leander Burdick, Henry W. Bigelow, David P. Chamberlin, D. J. Caine, G. W. Hart, Harry Haynes, Reuben C. Lemmon, C. R. Messinger, Lyman Nolton, now of Detroit; J. Cooper Price, Mert C. Robinson, H. M. Schnetzler, and W. T. Walker. All are expected to be present unless death intervenes.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Prairie Depot, May 11.—Stow & Van Vleck's well No. 5, on Holcomb farm, was struck by lightning at 3:30 yesterday afternoon and with two tanks of oil was entirely consumed.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The consequence of murder is becoming quite unpleasant in Colorado. The hangings occur with marked regularity after guilt is proven.—Denver Times.

The story that President Harrison declined to write a letter withdrawing his name from the list of presidential candidates is one of the very few rumors now current in politics which do not need any confirmation.—Providence Journal.

One thing is very sure, the coming presidential campaign will be educational. The people are in a thinking mood. Tariff, free trade, reciprocity, unlimited silver coinage, pauper immigration, and the rights of every citizen under the law are all live questions, and cannot be downed by any political platform makers.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

It is a case of the west, which understands the subject, against the east, which does not understand it. It is not a question of partisan politics at all. All intelligent men who understand the Chinese question are in favor of placing strong restrictions upon Chinese immigration, and this is as true of one party as it is of the other.—Denver Republican.

Editors who have been accustomed to note every effort toward a reform of the tariff as evidence of the potency of British gold and Cobden club activity will be surprised to learn that the bill for the free admission of certain foreign-built ships to an American register has been greeted in England with bitter hostility. There must be some mistake in this or high-tax editors have been sadly deceived in the past.—Chicago Times.

The political situation in Alabama, so far as democratic harmony is concerned, is much better than it was a few weeks ago. The danger of a split no longer exists, owing to the fact that Gov. Jones has greatly increased his lead in the gubernatorial race, and his majority in the state convention will be so large that there will be no excuse whatever for a split on the part of the democrats who are supporting Kolb.—New Orleans States.

It is a significant fact that neither in the New York republican platform this year nor in the Massachusetts republican platform is there a single word of commendation of the Sherman bill, which had been previously lauded by the republicans of both of these states. Instead of making capital against the democrats on the silver question the republicans of leading eastern states have been obliged to modify their own position radically at this critical period.—Rochester Herald.

It is worthy of observation that none of the republican state conventions of last week made the remotest reference to such a measure as the Force bill. Outside of Pennsylvania the force bill is a dead issue with the republican party, and it seems to be kept alive in Pennsylvania only as a means or exciting partisan hostility to Senator Quay. In this view of the question Johnny Davenport's scheme for bossing the elections of the people need cause little concern.—Philadelphia Record.

We contend that Mr. Hill's future political salvation depends upon Mr. Cleveland carrying New York next fall, and we believe no one knows better than Mr. Hill himself that the loss of that state would mean a suspicion and lack of democratic confidence in him from which he never could recover. He will, in consequence, throw his whole influence for the democratic nominee, and with all factions of the party thoroughly united, and with Cleveland and tariff reform as the man and the ticket, the democracy will sweep the country like a cyclone.—Richmond Times.

HERE IS A GO INDEED

Who Owns Wabash Elevator Number Five?

Suit Filed in Common Pleas Court Involving the Possession of This Property—An Important Case.

A suit of more than ordinary interest was filed in common pleas court yesterday afternoon.

The action is instituted by the Wabash railway company against the Toledo & Wabash Elevator company, to recover possession of the land on which the Wabash elevator No. 5 stands, including the improvements.

The property involved abuts on the river front 500 feet and is 500 feet wide, and joins Schenck's coal chutes on the east. The property is of excessive value on account of its splendid dockage, as well as being specially adapted for elevator property.

In the year 1880 this property was in the possession of the old St. Louis, Wabash & Pacific Railroad company, which was operating what is now the Wabash railroad.

During this year the St. Louis, Wabash & Pacific Railway company executed a lease of the property in question to the Toledo & Wabash Elevator company. At the time of the execution of this lease, however, the property was subject to a number of general railroad mortgages. The property was vacant and unimproved, but the company accepted the lease and improved the property to its present value, notwithstanding the incumberance.

Not long after the mortgages were foreclosed and the property disposed of at judicial sale. The Wabash Railroad company was the lowest bidder and came into possession. The company now demands its rights.

In conversation with a Bee on the subject Alex L. Smith, attorney for the railroad company, said: "The substance of the matter is, the only interest the elevator company has in the property is under the lease from the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific Railroad company. The company accepted this lease regardless of existing incumbrance, and now the railroad company, by virtue of the rights of the judicial sale, demands its property."

Jim Robison Buys Another Handsome Tract.

Sale of 45 Lots in Spring Grove Addition — Fred Reynolds to Erect a Marble Residence—Other Deals

There seems to be an incipient boom in real estate. During the last few days there have been some big deals, and some have been consummated and others are still pending. Building is also on the boom, and more fine residence and business blocks will go up this year in Toledo than in any previous year. Two heavy deals were consummated yesterday.

A few days ago James Robison purchased for $7,000 100 feet front corner of Floyd and Parkwood from J. B. Ketcham, 2d. Yesterday Mr. Robison purchased the adjoining 100 feet for $5,500.

The Bee a few days ago announced that Mr. Fred Reynolds was to build on the lot adjoining his brother Charles on Collingwood avenue. Yesterday Mr. Reynolds decided to erect the residence of rough marble, and it promises to be the finest in the city.

Clarence Brown yesterday afternoon sold four lots in Lincoln Smith addition to Lincoln Smith for $4,000. The lots were 91, 92, 93 and 94.

Walter Ely and James H. Southard sold 45 lots in Spring Grove addition to James M. Ormond and James S. Martin, the consideration being $5,000.

CARRINGTON'S HOMESTEAD

On Superior Street to be Sold at Auction.

The Object to Secure a Division of the Carrington Estate—The Sale a Week from Thursday.

The handsome Carrington homestead and grounds on the corner of Walnut and Superior streets are to be sold at public auction Thursday, May 19.

The residence is one of the finest in the city, and the site on which it is located is 148 feet on Superior and the same on Walnut.

No particular significance is attached to the announcement, as the object is simply to secure a division of the property.

It is possible the property will be bought in by the family, although Mr. W. T. Carrington spends most of his time in Chicago, where his business is flourishing to such an extent that it requires his almost continual presence.

McCarthy shot and killed Charles Nederman on Abigail street in the fall of 1890. Craig cut the throat of his mistress, who went by the name of Annie Craig, almost severing the head.

THE SHERMAN BOOM.

Foraker's Friends are Inflating It.

They Would Like to Get John Out of the Senate So That Joe Can Get In Washington, May 11.—Senator Sherman is not taking any part in inflating the boom that has recently arisen in his behalf, but it goes without saying that he will accept the presidential nomination with graceful willingness if it is offered him.

Foraker has a knot of ardent friends in Washington who started out to work up Sherman sentiment. They point with force and truth to the fact that Sherman is a safe man and would, therefore, make a safe president.

They argue that he is particularly strong with the Germans and could certainly carry the state of New York.

Gov. Foraker has assured a friend of his who is here that he will not oppose Sherman, and the friend says the entire delegation from Ohio to Minneapolis will vote as a unit for Sherman if his name goes to the convention.

It follows, of course, that if Sherman should be elected president some other Ohio man would fall heir to a full term in the senate. Foraker's friends know all this. The fact is, however, that the Sherman boom did not originate in the state of Ohio, but it has been taken up there and may develop much beyond its present proportions.

Senator Stanford, of California, has been frequently mentioned as a possible candidate of the third party for president. Being asked about the matter he said today: "I am a republican. Under no circumstances will I be a candidate outside of that party. It is true that I hold some views which differ with those of my political associates, but I cannot consent to accept a nomination by any third party. I am not a candidate for the presidential nomination at all. My health is such that it would be unwise for me to go into such a campaign. I will say to you that I am out of the race, or rather that I was never in it. Many leading members of the alliance party have expressed the desire to nominate me, but I have uniformly declined to be a candidate, and shall continue to do so. As I have said I am a republican, and whatever influence I may have will be exerted for the election of the candidate of that party, whoever he may be."

She could not take Cod Liver Oil.

Dr. J. P. SMITH, Danbury, Ct., writes:

"In the case of a young lady who has Consumption, I find, to my surprise, that she can take, without the slightest difficulty,

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES

while she could not take any preparation of Cod Liver Oil, or in fact anything that had a suspicion of being disagreeable.

I despaired of her life four weeks ago, but she has gained strength lately, and has no fainting spells, which were very frequent. Angier's Petroleum Emulsion was the only change made in treatment."

It is truly wonderful in its effects, and is not to be confounded with any other Emulsion.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

THE REWARD.

Who, looking backward from his manhood's prime,
Sees not the specter of his misspent time,
And through the shade
Of funeral cypress, plaited thick behind,
Hears no reproachful whisper on the wind
From his beloved dead?

Who bears no trace of passion's evil force?
Who shuns thy sting, O terrible Remorse?
Who would not cast
Half of its future from him, but to win
Wakeless oblivion or the wrong and sin
Of the sealed past?

Alas! the evil which we fain would shun;
We do, and leave the wished-for good undone.
Our strength to-day
Is but to-morrow's weakness prone to fall;
Poor, blind, unprofitable servants all
Are we alway.

Yet who, thus looking backward o'er his years,
Feels not his eyelids wet with grateful tears,
If he hath been
Permitted, weak and sinful as he was,
To cheer and aid in some ennobling cause
His fellow men?

If he hath hidden the outcast, or lent in
A ray of sunshine to the cell of sin;
If he hath lent
Strength to the weak, and in an hour of need
Over the suffering, heedless of his creed
Or hue, hath bent—

He hath not lived in vain; and, while he gives
The praise to Him in whom he moves and lives,
With thankful heart
He gazes backward, and with hope before,
Knowing that from his works he never more
Can henceforth part.

—J. G. Whittier.

Simplicity was the marked trait in the character of Alexander Mackenzie, the ex-primier of Canada, who died the other day. It is related of him that while in office he often received callers in his shirt sleeves, and the workmen had as much attention from him as the office holders. The late Gov. Hartranft, of Pennsylvania, had a genealogical hobby, and nothing pleased him so much as finding a new link that connected him with his ancestor Caspar Schwenkfeld, the Silesian nobleman, who settled in Montgomery county, Pa., in 1734. In a prominent place in the governor's library there hung an elaborately framed family tree.

The Rev. E. Walpole Warren, an English clergyman living in New York, has never become an American citizen. "I have refrained," he says, "from taking out papers as a citizen of New York because the city is so wicked and corrupt that I would not wish to be identified with it even as a voter." Is it not rather novel religious doctrine to say that the leaven has a right to shun identification with the lump?

Collectors who pick up strictly genuine apostle spoons for a couple of dollars a spoon will be interested to know that a set of twelve such spoons were recently sold at Christie's, in London, for $2,000. They had silver gilt stems, surmounted by gilt figures of the apostles, but their great value arises from the fact that they were a present from Charles II to the wife of Sir Robert Clayton, lord mayor of London.

Undeterred by the fact that there are 4,000 English grammars in existance a South Carolina professor is at work on a new one. It is to be a little fellow, however, like the famous Midshipman Easy baby, and for that reason it may be forgiven. "A big book is a big evil, but a little book is a great good," said the old Greek proverb. Yet it does seem rash for this unknown professor to make the attempt when Yale's great professor, W. D. Whitney, has produced a most satisfactory small English grammar in his "Essentials of English." The new book will hardly fill any "long-felt want."

MISS JONES' JEALOUSLY.

"What on earth is the matter, Mrs. J.?" said Jones, as he came in to his dinner. "You who generally are as cool as a cucumber, and as neat as a pin when I arrive, now look flurried and untidy. Hey, wifey?"

"Discharged Annie this morning and had to cook the dinner myself. Hope you have an appetite, for that's more than I have."

"Discharged Annie? Why, I thought she suited you to a T."

"There couldn't be a better girl," said Mrs. Jones, with a sigh.

"What was the matter, then, that you should turn her away?"

"She was too good-looking."

Here Mrs. Jones glanced furtively at her husband under her long, brown eyelashes, to see the effect of her words upon him. But she detected no change of color, and he only made the remark:

"Too many followers, I suppose."

"She kept no company," said his wife.

Now the fact was that Mrs. Jones, who was herself as "pretty as a picture," was made morbidly unhappy by the demon Jealousy, who in this case proved as green a monster as ever ate out the heart of a loving little woman.

Jones devoured his dinner in provoking silence, for he "saw through the whole of it."

"He misses her," thought Mrs. J., and forthwith laid out her plans for an afternoon of tears over to mother's."

The next three months in Jones' house were prolific of scenes and farces, we might almost say tragedies.

They tried help from every quarter of the globe.

There was, to use poor Mrs. Jones' own words, "too much blarney about the Irish girls; they would just as soon kiss their master behind the kitchen door as not; and as for the Scotch girls, they would as quickly let their master kiss them."

It was in vain that poor Jones proclaimed his innocence. Mrs. Jones had "seen loving glances thrown" as he ordered his soup, and "seen hands touch when the desert was brought on" and "it was a sin and a shame what poor wives had to witness in their own homes."

Which of these twain, who should have been one, was the more unhappy, we leave our readers to confecture.

Mrs. Jones was battling with imaginary troubles; Mr. Jones was a martyr. He loved his wife devotedly and never had a thought of being unfaithful to her. Kindness of heart he was blessed with to an uncommon degree, and kind he must be not only to his servants and employes, but even to the dog and cat that fawned upon him.

One night Jones came home to a tempest of thunder, lightning and tearful rain. English Mary had been seen coming out of his office at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of "her day out," by the jealous wife.

Mary was called out of the kitchen by the irate Jones and, standing on her dignity, told her simple story.

On going home to her mother's house she had found her little brother very sick and no money in the house for medicine. As the surest and quickest way to obtain it she had called at her employer's office.

"Just a story made up between you, you wretches!" said the frantic little wife. "I'll bear this no longer. Pack up your things and go, you hussy! and I'll get to-morrow, if I live, the blackest negro there is to be had in the city, see if I don't."

Jones could not repress a smile at this announcement, which only served to make the fire of jealous anger burn the fiercer in his wife's bosom.

True to her word Mrs. Jones established at the head of her saucepans and kettles a real Dinah, black as the ace of spades and as ugly as need be.

"This will fix him," said Mrs. J. "At least I shall not be annoyed by sheep's eyes and sly ways in my own house."

Now, Jones had a fund of sly humor in his anatomy, and he determined to call it into play. So he cast loving glances at Dinah, squeezed her hand at every opportunity when his wife was present, whispered tenderly to her as he took his overcoat or slippers from her hand, until the poor, astonished woman, who was ignorant of the situation, would retire to the kitchen and mutter to herself:

"Well, I declar'! What kin de massa see in dis ole nigger to captiwate, anyhow?"

But this time Mr. Jones had "reckoned without his host." His wife knew him too well not to see that this was "put on."

"He is too fastidious for that," she would say to herself, and for a time she lived in comparative peace and comfort. But Jones was determined to have his fun out at his wife's expense, so he called in his brother to aid him.

It was Thursday, and Mrs. Jones had gone over to her mother's to have "a good talk." "Dinah was such a prize, so trusty and faithful! and Fred, now out of temptation, was as good a husband as need be!"

At 5 o'clock the little wife folded up her work and tripped home, that she might tidy herself up ready to receive her husband's kiss at the gate.

She ran around the back way, stopping to wipe her feet carefully on the mat at the porch door, when she was attracted by the sound of her husband's voice in the kitchen. It was between daylight and dark, and she slipped out into the yard and peeped through the kitchen window.

What a sight met her gaze!

There sat Fred Jones rocking in the old-fashioned rocking-chair, with Dinah sitting in his lap, her woolly head resting lovingly on his shoulder.

The enraged wife gave one scream and rushed back to her mother's house.

"I could forgive him even now for this," she sobbed out on her mother's knee; "but his horrible taste I can never forgive—never—never!"

In the midst of this scene in came a stalwart youth of 18 or thereabouts, black as a crow.

"Didn't you know me, you little goose you?—me, John Jones of the burnt cork persuasion, brother-in-law of the prettiest but silliest little woman in the world. Go home, now, and comfort the forlorn creature sitting in that rocking chair and cook him a good supper, as we dismissed Dinah for the evening before our farce began, so as to appropriate her checked apron and greasy cap! Ugh! Don't you ever doubt him again; if you do you deserve to be quartered—on your mother!"

Patience Jones laughed and cried all in one breath; but the way she made her little feet fly over the ground that separated her from her husband was a caution to jealous wives.—San Francisco Call.

Not many physicians make great therapeutic discoveries. For the most part they content themselves with administering judiciously what is prescribed in the books. To Dr. J. C. Ayer, however, is due the credit of discovering that greatest of blood purifiers—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

TWO MAYORS AGREED

Sturdy Men of Montreal and Northampton.

How Hon. James McShane Recovered Health and Strength.

Mr. Couch's Recovery from as Serious a Trouble as One Can Have.

Hon. James McShane, M. P. P., Montreal's mayor, is one of the most public spirited men in the country. He is a man of strong character, and his word is as good as the ordinary man's bond. Mayor McShane, owing to overwork, was completely run down and prostrated. It was a critical time in the affairs of the city, and his physicians sought for the best means of recovery—the most effective recuperator, that he might be able, with as little delay as possible, to carry on his manifold business. Upon their advice he acted as many other men have done; he decided without hesitation to try the efficacy of Paine's celery compound, having heard much of its wonderful results.

Mayor of Montreal.

He was not disappointed. His experience with this great remedy was so satisfactory and so gratifying to his family and friends, that a short time ago he sent the proprietors a strong testimonial, which adds another proof to the statements of the physicians that Paine's celery compound stands far above all other remedies in honest and great results. His letter is as follows:

Gentlemen:—It is with extreme pleasure that I give you a testimonial in favor of your great remedy, popularly known as Paine's celery compound.

I used it at a time when I was overworked and run down. The use of the compound has given me a good appetite and made me much stronger than I was before I used it.

I cheerfully recommend it to all in need of a tonic and strengthener.. Yours very truly, J. McSHANE, Mayor of Montreal.

B. M. Couch, Esq., of Northampton, Mass., is a well-known manufacturer, whose remarkable cure by the use of this same excellent remedy has caused an extraordinary sale of Paine's celery compound in this city.

B. M. Couch.

Writing to the Wells & Richardson company, he says: "About 20 years ago, while I was building my shop here, a staging on which I was, fell to the ground. I was taken up for dead, but finally after eight days rallied so as to have my reason come back to me. After three or four years, I was able to go on with my business, but I was troubled terribly with neuralgia of the heart. For years I have been expecting to drop down any time. But my wife, who had a shock of palsy eighteen months ago, wished me to get some Paine's celery compound for her. It helped her so much that I began taking it some months since for my heart, and to-day I feel that my neuralgia of the heart is cured. I have not had a spasm for weeks, and believe I shall not have any more."

Mr. Couch's condition and his remarkable recovery has made a great stir in that section of New England. Hon. J. E. Lemble, mayor of Northampton, Lewis Warner, Esq., president Hampshire county National bank, and other prominent citizens of Northampton, are well acquainted with the facts as given above.

Paine's celery compound cures. It makes people well.

SENATOR MATTHEWS.

He Died at His Home in Champaign, Illinois.

Champaign, Ill., May 11.—State Senator Milton W. Matthews died at his home in Urbana at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His death was due to repeated attacks of inflammatory rheumatism, which had induced heart trouble and a complication of diseases.

Since Saturday Senator Matthews has been cognizant of the fact that his end was near and spent the time in arranging for the future of his family, which consists of a devoted wife, daughter and a son.

A DECISIVE BLOW FOR FREEDOM

From the tyrannical yoke of those despotic allies, dyspepsia, constipation and liver complaint, is struck when the quondom victim of their galling supremacy has taken a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Then they vamose defeated, and health resumes its welcome sway. Such is the invariable experience of those who use the ruling alternative to get rid of these associate evils. Anti-dyspeptics, cholagogues, drastic cathartics are as the sands of the sea, numberless and—useless. The happy blending of remedial properties, derived from nature's botanic storehouse, with a pure, modified spirituous basis existent in the Bitters, not only initiate but effectuate the joint cure of chronic indigestion, irregularity of the bowels and perversion of the bile. The surest defense against malaria is this agreeable fortifier and preservative of health under unfavorable atmospheric conditions. It counteracts a tendency to rheumatism, rouses the kidneys and bladder when sluggish, from inaction, and endows a debilitated, nervous invalid with vigor. Incomparable as a tonic.

ARE AFTER A NEGRO FIEND

Brutal Deeds by an Enraged Husband.

He Stabs His Wife in the Breast and Kills His Six-Months Old Babe with One Blow.

Evansville, Ind., May 11.—Yesterday at Earlington, Ky., a small mining town a few miles from here, Major Henetrix, a negro from Nashville, went to find his wife, with whom he had quarreled.

He found her at her sister's residence, and when she came up to greet him, with their 8-months old child in her arms, Henetrix drew a knife and stabbed the woman in the breast.

With clenched fists he struck the baby a cruel blow in the face and fled to the woods.

The baby died from the effects of the blow and the mother is expected to die at any moment.

A mob was organized as soon as the news became known and they started in pursuit. A telegram from Morton's Gap, Ky., last evening said that he has been caught there and was in danger of being lynched.

HELD UP A STAGE.

Robbers Capture an Express Box in the West.

Redding, Cal., May 11.—The Redding and Weaverville stage was robbed last evening by two masked men about two miles from here.

The Wells-Fargo box was taken, but the mails were unmolested. A good description of the robbers has been obtained and officers and a posse are in pursuit with good prospect of capturing or killing the outlaws.

PAIGE IN THE PENITENTIARY.

He Will Keep Books in the Prison Shop.

Columbus, O., May 11.—There was received at the Ohio state prison last evening a prisoner whose sins have recently made him widely known, Ralph K. Paige, late cashier of the Painesville National bank. He comes to serve 10 years for forging a $2,000 note on the Importers and Traders National bank of New York city. He will be known as "25,303," and will begin prison life to-day as bookkeeper in the prison state shop.

THREE NEW ENGINE HOUSES

To be Located in Different Parts of the City.

At Least Such is the Recommendation of the Fire Committee After an Inspection—Suggestions for the Board.

The sub committee of the council, consisting of Messrs. Hartford, Hall, Hake and Neuendoorf with Fire Commissioners Hanner and Eversman and Chief Wall, made a tour of the city for the purpose of locating some new engine houses. They visited the Fifth and Ninth wards, Air Line Junction, Auburndale, North Toledo and East Toledo, and when the tour was finished the commissioners came to the conclusion that the fire protection of the city is entirely inadequate to the territory covered. The committee then consulted together and decided to build new engine houses in the Sixth, Ninth and Seventh wards and to change the location of the house in the First ward.

Following is the report on this matter, which they will present to the council:

To the Honorable, the members of the Fire Committee of the Common Council:

Your sub-committe, to whom was referred the matter of selecting sites for engine houses, beg leave to submit the following:

1. That we recommend that engine house No. 1, in the First ward, situated at the corner of Lagrange street and the alley between Erie and Huron streets, be sold and that the proceeds of the sale be directed to the purchase of a site and to the erection of a new engine house at the southwest corner of Erie and Brush streets, the cost not to exceed $35 per foot. Also, that we recommend that the fire commissioners be given authority to loan a hose cart and hose to the lumber firms of Kelsey & Freeman and Barbour & Starr, the same to be placed in a suitable building and cared for by competent men at the expense of said firms. It is the understanding with the above mentioned firms that the hose cart and men employed to run it, shall be under the direct supervision of the chief of the fire department, and that they shall be devoted to the use of the city at all fires in the immediate vicinity.

2. That we recommend that no changes be made in the Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth wards.

3. That we recommend the building of an additional engine house in the Sixth ward, on lot 40, Oregon township, situated on Oak street, between Fassett and Dawson streets, the same to be 30 feet wide and 165 feet deep, the cost not to exceed $20 per foot.

4. That we recommend the selection of a site and the erection of an engine house at a point near the intersection of Bancroft and Monroe streets, near the dividing lines between the Seventh and Eighth wards, the same to be decided upon hereafter.

5. That we recommend the erection of a new engine house in the Ninth ward, to be situated on South street, the cost not to exceed $20 per foot.

THE FARIBAULT SYSTEM

Full Text of the Document from the Vatican.

The Interest of the Pope and the Cardinals in the American School Affairs.

Rome, May 11.—The following is the full text of the deliverances of the vatican in regard to the attitude of the holy see toward Archbishop Ireland's educational policy as set forth in what is known as the Faribault-Stillwater (Minn.) plan:

To Most Rev. John Ireland, Archbishop of St. Paul, Minn.:

"Most Illustrious and Reverend Sir: It has pleased your grace to submit to the judgment of the holy see the arrangement you deemed to take for elementary schools at Faribault and Stillwater, Minn., in your diocese, in order to provide in the best manner possible for the spiritual welfare of the children confided to your pastoral care.

"This wise resolution of your grace seemed all the more prudent because the aforesaid arrangement, even though it regarded only separate and exceptional cases, still appeared to many of the bishops, to the members of the lower clergy and laity as hardly worthy of approval, maybe because they were not as well acquainted with the circumstances and conditions of the transactions as they ought to have been in order to have been able to pronounce thereon a fair opinion.

"For that reason His Holiness confided the examination of this important question to a committee of cardinals chosen from the sacred congregation of the propaganda.

"At a meeting held on the 21st inst., after weighing carefully the grave reasons adduced by your grace with so much clearness, which induced you to enter into the arrangement mentioned above, and considering the declarations, worthy of every praise, which show that in the matter of education your grace has always wished to maintain inviolate the principles set forth by the holy see and commended to the observance of the bishops by the councils of Baltimore, particularly the third council, their eminences gave their decision on the question submitted to them as it is found in the accompanying document, and his holiness has ratified and approved the same.

"I hope your grace will be gratified by this decision of the holy see, because, though unusual provisions made by the different bishops in the respective dioceses, according to the requirement of circumstances, cannot be approved directly by the holy see when they imply a departure, to a certain extent, from a general law, nevertheless, when the holy see declares that such provisions may be tolerated, it thereby puts an end to all indiscreet attacks upon them.

"Furthermore, by order of his holiness and with great pleasure to myself, I must not fail to inform your grace that your expressions of respect, filial obedience and unalterable adherence to the holy see and its teachings, of which you have given splendid proofs, have been most acceptable to the sovereign pontiff and myself, and have strengthened the full confidence of the holy see in your wisdom and piety.

"Finally, I pray that God may preserve your grace and protect you always.

"Your grace's most devoted servant,

"M. Card Ledochowski, Prefect.

"Ignatius, Archbishop of Damiata, Secretary.

"In special congregation of the propaganda held on the 21st of April, 1892, to consider the question what judgment is to be formed of the arrangement entered into by Archbishop Ireland concerning the two schools, at Faribault and Stillwater, Minn., in this case, they decided to reply affirmatively and without derogating from the decrees of the councils of Baltimore on parochial schools, that the arrangement entered into by Archbishop Ireland concerning the schools at Faribault and Stillwater, taking into consideration all the circumstances, can be tolerated.

"In an audience held on the same day, his holiness deigned to approve the resolution of the cardinals given above.

"Ignatius, Archbishop of Damiata,
"Secretary."

SET HIM RIGHT.

Geo. Augustus Sala, the well known English writer, on his last Australian trip, wrote as follows to The London Daily Telegraph:

"I especially have a pleasant remembrance of the ship's doctor—a very experienced maritime medico indeed, who tended me most kindly during a horrible spell of bronchitis and spasmodic asthma, provoked by the sea fog which had swooped down on us just after we left San Francisco. But the doctor's prescriptions and the increasing warmth of the temperature as we neared the Tropics, and, in particular, a couple of Allcock's Porous Plasters clapped on—one on the chest and another between the shoulder blades—soon set me right."

TUGGING AT THEIR SHIRTS

Three Men Commence to Peel in Public.

While Under the Hypnotic Influence at Wheeler's Last Evening—Dr. Flint Rushed Them Off.

The audience at Wheeler's last evening had cause to feel uneasy, especially the ladies, for the reason that three men placed in a hypnotic or mesmeric state by Dr. Flint commenced to undress while the doctor's back was turned. There were about a dozen people from the audience on the stage who had been mesmerized by the doctor. He told them that he felt fleas biting him. "Yes," said he, "they're biting hard; they're biting all of you." At this the hypnotized dozen commenced to squirm and go through numerous antics in vain endeavor to alleviate the itching. Dr. Flint was busy in front of the stage and did not notice a man way back in the corner commence to disrobe in his efforts to get at the seat of his infernal itching sensation. He had everything off but his shirt and pants, and had commenced on them when the doctor saw him and rushed with him off the stage. While he was thus engaged a big black coon who had been rubbing his back on the proscenium arch commenced to undress, and got his pants partly down before the doctor's return, when he was removed in hot haste.

Another man tried to follow the example of the others, but was brought to his senses. It was a dangerous and laughable test, and between blushing and giggling the ladies in the audience were somewhat done up.

PLAYED NIP AND TUCK

Crop Report and Weather Conditions

Have a Battle Royal on the Exchanges.

Limited Trading in Toledo—Market Quotations from all Over the Whole World.

Bradstreets reports of the visible supply makes a decrease in wheat of 2,551,000 bus. Pacific coast incomplete. Corn decreased 1,623,000 bus. Oats 532,000 bus.

The wheat markets in this country opened firm and in the first hour and a half reached an advance of 5-8c. It was nip and tuck between the influence of the government report, which was held to be bearish, and the rain and cold weather in the northwest, which was considered bullish. But the offerings were too much for the market, and it broke and closed 1 3-8c lower in Chicago, and 3-4c lower in New York. Corn for May is higher west, and lower east. July shade higher. Paris wheat market closes higher. London and Liverpool noted closing lower.

In New York May wheat closed 3-8c, July 3-4c lower. May corn 7-8c, July 1-8c lower. May oats 1-8c lower.

J bRarAulGoI a:, f 2 ;fiphac cBlb

In Chicago May and July wheat closed 1 3-8c lower. May corn 1c and July 1-4c up. May oats 1-8c up.

In Toledo—The trading in wheat has been much more limited than yesterday; the market has been fairly firm all day and the closing prices are not much below those of yesterday. On the call May wheat sold at 90 3-4c to 91c; June at 89 5-8c. After the call May sold at 91c and declined to 90 1-2c; June sold at 89 3-4c and closed at 1-2c; July sold at 86 3-8c and closed at 85 1-2c a, a loss of 3 8c; August sold at 85c and closed at 84 1-4c, a loss of 1-2c.

Cash wheat was in less demand to-day in the trading for car lots, but inquired for by the seaboard at very close to the market. No. 2 soft sold at 91c and at close 90 1-2c was the market: No. 3 soft at 88c; smutty wheat at 78c.

Corn—No. 2 at 45c; July, 45c; No. 2 yellow at 46 3-4c. Oats—No. 2 at 30 3-4c. Rye—Rejected at 62c.

Grain Movement.

The receipts of wheat to-day at Minneapolis and Duluth are very light, say 55,889 bu, and at five other western points 151,985 bu.

On the correspond'ng Monday in 1891 the receipts were 119,723 bu.

The exoprt clearances yesterday at four Atlantic ports were, wheat 644,680 bu and flour to an aggregate of 950,000 bu. Exports of corn 153898 bu and of oats 74,592 bu.

Comment.

The average condition of winter wheat May 1 was 84. April 1 it was 81.2. In Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Kansas, three great producing states of winter wheat, the average April 1 was 77.1. May 1 it is 80.4. May 1, 1891, the average on these six states was 98.4, and the average for the whole country was 97.9. The decline on these six states, compared with May 1, 1891, is 18 per cent. It represents about 75,000,000 bu deficient production of winter wheat unless crop greatly improves before harvest. Everybody except ourselves expected an improvement, but we cannot conceive how the report is a bearish one, on general principles. The report above mentioned makes the sowing of spring wheat about 68 per cent. of the whole. Since May 1 very little spring wheat has been sown, and to-day the rain is reported as prevailing everywhere in the northwest and west.

Bearing significantly on the above we notice, by our files, that seeding in the northwest was practically completed last year April 27.

Government Report.

Washington, May 11.—The statistical returns of the department of agriculture for May indicate an average condition of 84 for wheat against 81.2 last month. The weather has been too cold for rapid growth, yet the crop has improved perceptibly. The change in the central wheat region is from 71 to 75 in Ohio, 83 to 84 in Michigan, 78 to 85 in Indiana, 82 to 86 in Illinois, 72 to 74 in Missouri, and 77 to 80 in Kansas. In Michigan April weather was quite severe, causing considerable "heaving" in clay soils that nearly offset the improvements in other areas. Low temperature prevented much improvement in Missouri. Condition has slightly declined in California, yet the prospect is still good on the Pacific coast.

The condition of rye has advanced from 87 to 88.9. Winter barley averages 92.8. The percentage of New York is 92, California 94, Illinois 90, Michigan 88.

Mowing lands have suffered some loss of condition from winter freezing, but make a higher average than the winter grain, or 89.6 for the entire breadth. The condition of pastures averages 87.5.

The proportion of spring plowing usually done on the 1st of May is a little above three-fourths for the whole country, or 76.6 per cent. as reported. The present season has been cold and unfavorable for rapid progress of spring work, and the proportion returned as done is only 64.6 per cent. In the eastern states temperature has been high and work is more advanced than usual.

In the central west slight departure from normal precipitation has occurred, with some deficiency of heat, with such distribution as to delay farm operations, which are not so well advanced as usual in this region. The weather on the Pacific coast has been comparatively cool, and spring plowing has been delayed. Altogether the spring may be considered late and the work of the farm crowded into narrower limits.

INDIANA BANKERS.

They Score a Victory Before the Supreme Court.

Indianapolis, May 11.—The Indiana bankers won their case against the new state tax law in the supreme court. Under the law the board of tax commissioners could fine and imprison for a refusal to answer questions asked by the board, and Philip C. Decker, president of an Evansville bank, who refused to testify concerning deposits in the bank, was sent to jail, but released on habeas corpus writ.

The supreme court passed on the case and decided that the clause inflicting fines and imprisonment was unconstitutional, but that it did not vitiate the act, the other radical provisions of which are now in litigation.

A CARD.

Editor of the Bee:

Dear Sir: We are accused of being members of an association here in the city of Toledo, called the A. P. A., which we know nothing of. The accusation is for the purpose of injuring our trade and influencing people who are prejudiced against that order. We say we do not belong to the order so reported, and see no reason for such report, other than the jealousy of said competitors in our line. Our motto is, live and let live. We came here a few months ago and purchased the stock of Wm. Fleig, and expect to do business on business principles, and no other.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Florida on Wheels.

"Florida on Wheels," at the Union depot, is well worth a visit. The car is attractively filled up and contains specimens of the products of that state and is in itself a fair on wheels. The native woods, minerals, cereals, fruits, etc., are tastefully displayed, and the wonderful products of the state are set forth to better advantage than could possibly be done without an extended visit to the state itself. A visit to "Florida on Wheels" will be a revelation to most people, and all who see it come away impressed with the idea that Florida is a better and greater state than they had any idea of. The Florida Rolling Exposition is doing a grtat thing in bringing Florida into notice and advertising the great advantages of the land of orange groves, fruit and flowers. Mr. W. S. Webb, in charge, is a member of the Florida Daily Times Union, of Jacksonville.
